

IMPORTANT - LIMITATIONS ON OUR LIABILITY FOR BOOKINGS EFFECTED BY THE CORONA VIRUS

As the worldwide COVID-19 corona-virus pandemic remains ongoing at this time, and other reasons not reasonably foreseeable at this time, your travel plans may be interrupted or canceled by the supplier that is providing them, a government entity or other third party over which the Agency has no control. Client further acknowledges that the supplier's own cancellation, re-booking and refund policies, subject to any applicable law that is now or may later be in effect, will govern Client's rights and remedies, including the right to receive a refund, in such an event. Moreover, Client understands that should Client elect to purchase travel insurance, the terms of the policy will dictate whether, and to what extent, coverage for any financial loss may exist under the circumstances. Client agrees to hold Agency harmless and release the Agency from any and all liability for any damages, including but not limited to monetary losses, Client may incur as a result of such interruption or cancellation of these travel plans.

As travel opens around the world, all destinations, airports, air carriers, hotels, restaurants, transfer companies, car rental companies, shops and excursions have established COVID-19 safety measures and precautions which may change from day to day. These safety measures may include, but are not limited to: curfews, attraction closings and reduced hours, size of group gatherings, social distancing requirements, health screenings, self-quarantine requirements and COVID test results. Client accepts ultimate responsibility for their traveling party to have all the necessary provisions for travel (such as COVID test results, pre-travel questionnaires, etc.) Moreover, Client understands that they should assume responsibility for the necessary documents (such as COVID test results, pre-travel questionnaires, etc.) considering COVID-19, in order to travel to my specific destination.
